

“Locally-produced” & Other Programs/Series that SC Schools

May KEEP if Downloaded or Copied

Programs/Series on this list were either “locally produced” or permission granted for educational use by South Carolina Educators.

- Locally- produced” means that the program or series was produced by SCETV or SCETV with other entity. Other programs not produced by ETV are available because rights were obtained or program(s) provided free for SC educational use (indicated by * in list). If SC educators have the programs/series on this list already downloaded or copied, they may be kept for educational use.
- Series or programs NOT on this list that were produced by SCETV years ago or were not ingested in Learn360 can still be kept IF the copyright says South Carolina ETV. Sometimes the ETV logo appears at the beginning of the program, but it is always at the end, noting “Copyright South Carolina ETV Commission” or “South Carolina Educational Television Commission.” This indicates that the program was produced by SCETV. If SC educators have other programs/series with SCETV Copyright already downloaded or copied, they may be kept for educational use.
- KEY: (PD) Professional Development program or series
 - o (*) Program or series NOT produced by ETV but rights obtained for use by SC educators)
